

Martin Shields Joins Fusion Petroleum Technologies as Vice President of Integrated Interpretation

July 14, 2003: The Woodlands, Texas

Fusion Petroleum Technologies Inc. is pleased to announce that Dr. Martin Shields formerly with Exxon and Santa Fe Indonesia, has joined the company as its Vice President of Integrated Interpretation.

In his new role, Dr. Shields will manage the technology and services provided by FPTI in all aspects of seismic interpretation, regional and basin studies and reservoir studies. He will work closely with Dr. Alan R. Huffman, President of FPTI, to grow the company's business in the field of interpretation. Dr. Shields will also work closely with research staff in Houston and in FPTI's parent company, Fusion Geophysical LLC which is located in Norman, Oklahoma.

Dr. Shields is a proven oil finder with experience in several areas of geophysical technology. "Fusion is very pleased that Dr. Shields has elected to join our company", said Dr. Alan R. Huffman, President of Fusion Petroleum Technologies Inc. "Martin's breadth and depth of expertise includes a balance of operations and technology support experience, including a broad exposure to the domestic and international petroleum exploration and production business. I believe that Martin will be a key player in the future of Fusion and that he is the right person to build our interpretation services business in Houston."
